Lacento, Ruchè di Castagnole Monferrato 3.75 dl 42.00
DOCG 2020

Ruchè, Piemonte

The 'Lacento' was vinified from the little known grape variety Ruchè.

The typical characteristic of Ruchè is an extremely floral fragrance, often reminiscent of roses or raspberries. So as not to unnecessarily mask this exceptional aroma profile, the use of wood was dispensed with. On the palate, the Ruchè Lacento is full-bodied, with very smooth tannins and a long, aromatic finish.

Amarone della Valpolicella DOCG 'Pietro Junior' 2019 7.5 dl 94.00
Vignaiolo Pietro Zardini, Veneto

Corvina, Rondinella, Molinara

On the palate, it is full-bodied and the fruit notes become more elegant and reminiscent of redcurrants and fruit compote. The finish is powerful and, thanks to its elegance, gives you a desire for more.

Castiglion del Bosco, Toscana 3.75 dl 65.00

Sangiovese

Orfeo IGP Puglia 2021/22 7.5 dl 62.00
Cantina Paololeo, Puglia

Negroamaro

Dark ruby-red with garnet red reflexes, beautiful gloss and exquisite intensity. Wonderful aromas of dark woodland berries, blue plums, a hint of mocha and tobacco, underlain with a subtle earthy minerality. Donnafugata, Sicilia

Nero d'Avola

Aged for 24 months in barriques. Ruby red in the glass, with a tempting sweet scent and a fine balsamic undertone. The palate shows fine floral notes of violets and a hint of tobacco round off the long finish with a hint of tobacco.
